

England trip 2025 - Day 1 - May 12th

The adventure starts now!

Hello there! Today was our first day in England and we want to tell you what happened.

The day started on the bus. The night was tricky for many of us because we couldn't sleep. To get to the UK, we used a DFDS ferry from Dünkirchen. As we got onto it, everyone was very excited. When we arrived up on the deck and set off, we smelled the salty sea air and felt the gentle rocking of the waves. It was an amazing feeling! (And we even got free breakfast on board!)

As we approached the coast, we saw the beautiful white cliffs of Dover and realised that we had indeed finally arrived in Great Britain.

After another three hours, we stopped at one of the UK's most famous sights: Stonehenge! It was incredible, like being in another world.

For us, the best part of today was meeting our host family: There we stood, all very excited to meet our "parents" for the upcoming two weeks. Everyone had a great evening with them. But NOT everyone could believe that we were really in England after all.
